

In recognition of National Women's Month

Sistas of PPCNA

presents

Respectin' and Protectin' Yourself II:

A conversation to empower Arizona's African-American women...

"One Sista at a time"

10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Saturday, March 27, 2004

City of Phoenix Family Advocacy Center
2120 N. Central Ave in Phoenix

Sistas leading the conversation to raise the awareness of reproductive health, sexual health and domestic violence issues affecting African-American women:

Ginger Bealer, City of Phoenix Family Advocacy Center

Walidah Muhammad, MSN, FNP

Debbie A. Young, HBCU Alumni in Arizona/Educational Youth Outreach

Cassandra Wilson, Moderator

Door prizes ~ Food by Karim's Cobbler Shop & Bakery ~ Giveaways

Also:

Free Mammograms available from Mobile On-site Mammography

Available to women over 35, who are low income, without insurance and/or are victims of domestic violence. To schedule an appointment, call 602.631.4616 through March 15.

Be sure to specify morning or afternoon appointment preference and to leave a contact number for time confirmation.

The Conversation is FREE, but space is limited.
RSVP to yatodiva@cox.net or 602.430.1068

For more information, call 602.263.4220

City of Phoenix

